

23rd February 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

The Merseyside Police Band visited us on Tuesday, performing in our school hall. The band, the oldest police band in the country, consists of talented musicians so the sound which filled our school hall was incredible. The band took us on a journey around the world giving us the opportunity to listen to famous tunes from many countries. At Hatton Hill we are lucky to have such a good relationship with Merseyside Police which affords our children amazing opportunities. My favourite moment in the performance was watching the children's faces light up with wonder when the musicians played the first few bars of the first piece. We thank Merseyside Police Band for their memorable performance and hope it will inspire some of our children to pick up an instrument now or in the future.

World Book Day: Don't forget that World Book Day takes place on Thursday, 7th March and we are inviting all children to come into school dressed as a book character. We dress-up every other year and it is always a memorable occasion. PE and swimming lessons will not take place on this day due to children being in costume.

Last week your child brought home a World Book Day voucher which entitles him/her to one free World Book Day book or £1.00 off a book or audio book costing £2.99 or more. You can find a list of the free World Book Day books here:

<https://www.worldbookday.com/books-and-tokens/books/>

If you visit the website and click on the image of a book, it will give you more information as well as a link to the author reading each book. The free books look great and are available from many stores, including Tesco and Asda.

If you need ideas for a good book for your child, please visit your child's class page on our website (<https://www.hattonhill.co.uk/classes>). There you will find two leaflets, one gives 50 recommended reads for your child's year group and the other is the Book Trust's Great Book Guide. There is so much fabulous children's literature to explore. Happy reading!

Arriving at school: The school opens for children at 8.45am, and children may arrive between 8.45 and 8.55am, with registration at 8.55am. Children, particularly junior children, should not enter the school premises before 8.45am as they will not be supervised. Recently, children have been arriving as early as 8.30am!

Jewellery: This is a reminder to parents that stud earrings and watches are the ONLY items of jewellery children may wear to school. This rule is the same in all schools as jewellery presents a health and safety risk. Necklaces, rings and other such items will be confiscated and kept securely until they can be collected by a parent. It is the responsibility of parents to ensure that children are organised and appropriately dressed for school as per our uniform policy. We know that the vast majority of parents support us in all aspects of school life and this does not go unnoticed - thank you.

Yours faithfully,
Mrs Anna James
Headteacher
