Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day: We were amazed by all your creativity as we enjoyed World Book Day this week. The school was full of colour as the children and staff arrived in fancy dress costume depicting a wide variety of book characters. Photographs are available on our website

(<https://www.hattonhill.co.uk/works>

), with more coming soon, so you can try and guess which characters we were! Thank you to the whole school community for your support with this event. It certainly was a very memorable day for our children and, hopefully, it has inspired each child to read at least one new book. All in all, the day proved to be a wonderful celebration of books.

We also used the day to introduce our juniors to their new digital library system. This will allow children to scan books in and out of our school library. Children will be able to view books available and reserve books which they would like to read. Thank you to Mrs Stordy and a small group of teens completing their Duke of Edinburgh Awards (Harry, Louise and Peter) for tackling the enormous task of entering our many books into the digital system.

Red Nose Day: Next Friday is the annual Red Nose Day appeal which is always popular with our children. For a small donation, children may swap one item of their uniform for something red. For example, swap blue hair bobbles for red ones; school socks for red socks; or your blue t-shirt for a red one. Red noses may also be worn. Donations will also be swapped for a raffle ticket with a red nosed themed chocolatey cupcake (made by Mrs Maher) prizes for a winner in each class.

Parent and Teacher Meetings: Next week we look forward to welcoming parents and carers into school to meet with classteachers. This is an opportunity for teachers to update you on your child(ren)'s progress, behaviour and general attitude within the classroom and during more unstructured times of the day, such as breaktimes. Please remember, that children should not attend these meetings and childcare will not be available.

Infant Parents: Please enter via the infant porch door and view your child(ren)'s books in Year 2. Mrs Frazer will be in the infant department.

Junior Parents: Please enter via the main entrance and view your child(ren)'s books in Year 6. Mrs James will be in the junior department.

Clubs will be cancelled on Tuesday and Wednesday due to Parent and Teacher meetings.

Yours faithfully,
Mrs Anna James
Headteacher
